History

From 1858 until 1862, the building served as a school for boys. In 1912, the building became Hotel Pomona, completely owned and operated by women. An apprentice of Hendrik Petrus Berlage, the preeminent Dutch architect, designed the staircase, which remains the centrepiece of the hotel today. In 2020, Sircle Collection beautifully refurbished the historic property while

Partnerships

We know that every couple is different, therefore we offer a customisable experience. We are always available for recommendations and have well-established connections with The Hague's best wedding planners, caterers and decorators.

Location

Gracing the famous Royal Gardens, diverse Hofkwartier neighborhood and cobbled streets, the "centraal" in Park Centraal really suits us. The hotel is set in one of the oldest parts of the city.

Junior Suite

Our finest, most spacious suites—your own pied-à-terre overlooking the city or Royal Gardens. Your private lounge area, bathtub, liquor station, welcome amenities and spacious bathroom with deluxe Zenology spa products set this space apart. The elegant, modern design mixed with the historical details make for a unique start of your honeymoon.
